5	Sub-Committee Updates - Fundraising - Lauren Bennett Term 2 -

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Election Day Fundraiser - it was a great day, with all products sold, and a really great atmosphere. It was lovely to see all the families come together to do their bit. ● The Freshie Cookbook - working hard in the background on the recipe book. We have received about 75 recipe submissions and will end up with about 60 or so recipes in the book, with beautiful illustrations by the kids. Billie Calvert has been amazing in organising the artwork. Term 3 - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Freshie Cookbook - we will continue working on the cookbook, with artwork and recipes compiled ready to print. We will continue looking for sponsors to cover the printing costs. ● Family Tennis Day - Talks of organising a tennis tournament fun day at Cottesloe tennis club later in the term when the sun is shining. ● Spring Soiree - A night-time event for parents towards the end of term. Ideally on campus. Term 4 - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Freshie Cookbook - books sold in time for Christmas. ● Tuesday Treats - hoping to get this off the ground again for term 4 with ice-creams/icy-poles. ● End of year Sundowner <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - School Board - Gabriela Depisch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Voluntary contributions sit around 65% this year. Would love to see more school fees paid to ensure the school is able to fund staff and resources as required. ● Discussed how we can make a positive impact on the atmosphere and acknowledge the disruptions that were caused during Covid. - Class Rep Co-ordinator - Ciera Coveney/Julie Lindsay - Fathering Project Update - Rodolfo Tomasoni & Luke Rawsthorne Taking over from Steve Ryan, various events scheduled for the remainder of the year.
